Discussion and conclusion

As we have previously stated, this yoga practice gives concentration of the mind and freshness of the body. The regular practice of Lemurian Yoga yielded a number of consistent solutions to 2300 years' old unsolved mathematical problem. My findings have been appeared in international peer reviewed journals.<sup>[1-7]</sup>

I request the research community to do R& D in this area. Future probes and experiments may add more meaning to this Lemurian yoga.
